

50TH ANNUAL WALKER DAYS

APRIL 17-19, 2008 • PORTLAND, INDIANA

JAY COUNTY FAIRGROUNDS • HOST CLUB: LIMBERLOST COONHUNTERS CLUB

1. Advanced entries must be postmarked by midnight, April 5, 2008. Nite Hunt entries will be taken on grounds if there are enough guides available. The fee for entry on the day of the event is $50.
2. A confirmation will be mailed to all entrants confirming entry.
3. If there are enough guides, we will take entries on the day of the event. Entry Fee will be $50.
4. TWB&FA reserves the right to merge casts.
5. Note: If the dog entered is in heat, or a signed veterinary statement is submitted indicating the dog is injured and cannot hunt, the registered owner of that dog can substitute another dog registered in their name; otherwise, no refund. If the dog dies, you may enter another dog registered to you or receive refund if you turn in the registration certificate.
6. Entries must be confirmed at the TWB&FA desk by 4 p.m. (local time) on the night scheduled to hunt.
7. If entering more than one dog, please use the same format for the second dog.
8. Mark entry for Friday, Saturday, or Both; and Registered, Nite Champion or Grand Nite Champion; and if you can guide a cast.
9. Any entry that is returned to sender because of incomplete information will not be considered an advanced entry if not postmarked by April 5, 2008.
10. Easy Entry™ Card or proper registration papers (bill of sale) must be shown at the time of confirmation.
11. No membership dues sent with Walker Days entries.
12. Note: Hunting Judges will be used on all casts. Anyone hunting a dog who lives within a 75-mile radius of Portland, Indiana will be considered a guide if needed.

UKC, TWB&FA and the Limberlost Coonhunters Club are not responsible for loss, accidents or theft. Absolutely no gambling, alcoholic beverages, firearms or illegal drugs will be allowed on the grounds or while participating in the hunt or in the building the day of a UKC licensed event.
