2022 First Strike Series Standings

General Information

Points can be earned for both hunt and bench show competition accomplishments. Points earned in Hunt and Bench Show will be included in the Youth Handler's total points earned. However, Bench Show points are limited to not exceed the number of hunt competition points earned when the total is determined at the end of the calendar year. Note: This is not a rule for each individual event. It's a rule that only affects the final total points awarded at the end of the calendar year.

Example: John Doe Jr.: year-end Hunt points total = 75; year-end Show Points Total = 100; year-end Total Points Earned = 175. Result: Net Point Total = 150.

Any Youth Handler may compete with no more than two dogs in a hunt and or a show on the same day. The dog(s) they compete with in the hunt do not have to be the same dog(s) they compete with in the show. The dog they compete with is not required to be a dog that is registered to the youth as the owner.

Points may be earned throughout the calendar year (January 1-December 31). Standings will be updated monthly and published on the UKC website and in American Beagler magazine.

2022 First Strike Series Standings

Youth Handler Responsibilities

Whenever a youth is handling more than two different dogs in a hunt or more than two different dogs in a show, it is the youth's responsibility to clearly advise the entry takers, at the time of entry, which two dogs they are competing with for Series Points.

Event Officials Responsibilities

It is the responsibility of the event official (Master of Hounds and Bench Show Judge) to complete the First Strike Youth Series Results Form that is included with the Event Report. That form must be sent to UKC along with the Event Report. If there were no youth participating in the event that day, the event officials should indicate it as such on the form and include it with the Event Report regardless.

Award Winners

At the end of the year, there will be three winners recognized in each age division. The highest total net points earned will be the Gold Champion. The second highest total net points earned will be the Silver Champion. The third highest total net points earned will be the Bronze Champion. The winners will be recognized and receive their awards each year at the Beagle Nationals Awards Ceremony.

Trying Things Under a Pilot Program

Q: This spring I noticed a couple UKC trials that were advertised as Pilot trials. What is a pilot trial and what is its purpose?

A: Sometimes ideas sound great until you put them in play only to find that they don't work as well as you hoped, or they affect something else that becomes a concern. Sometimes they work awesome. Enter a pilot program where you advertise an event as a pilot trial where you'll be trying something new or specific outside of the norm. Sometimes it works out as expected and all is good.

Pilots have been a great tool and an essential part of many new programs at UKC throughout the years. The pilots you're referring to were related to a couple of Gundog Brace trials held earlier this year in the Carolina's. Clubs had the option of running a Gundog Brace to Small Pack. In the case of the pilot trial, they wanted to try the format in reverse Small Pack to Brace. Both pilots were well received by most of those participants including a couple who changed their mind after they physically watched it play out the way it did.

I'll be surprised if the BGA doesn't approve Small Pack to Brace as an option for clubs, based on the results of those pilot trials. Don't be surprised to see the BGA try a few other things this fall as well, under the platform of a pilot trial. Again, it's just a great way to try things before making decisions. And why not? It allows the perspective and feedback of all those beaglers involved.

Judging Criteria

Q: I assume UKC has a published set of standards that hounds are to be judged under? Where can those be found?

A: A rulebook can be found online at ukcdogs.com. From there go the Hunting Ops, Beagles, and then rules and forms. Or simply type in "beagle rules" in the search option box and it will take you to the right page. In time, a pocket-sized rulebook will be made available after the BGA has determined a few rulebook items they still want to test out first.

Performance Standards

The following performance standards were written for the sole purpose of evaluating hunting hounds. In proper balance, the positive characteristics outlined below make the Beagle hound an efficient producer of game. At the same time, negative characteristics or faults (also outlined below), prevent a dog from excelling at his job. Depending on the severity of the faults, a hound may routinely fail at completing the task at hand and hinder pack mates from doing the same.

Positive Characteristics

Hunt/Search - Without the ability to search out and start game, the ability to pursue it would never come into play. Credit should be given to hounds that consistently search for game in an eager, efficient and intelligent manner.

Line Control - While pursuing game, a hound must keep in close contact with the line of scent. Recklessness, competitiveness and eagerness to overtake game must never excuse a hound for continually losing the line of scent.

Nose - A hunting hound must have a good nose to be able to operate under adverse conditions throughout the season. While the ability to work a tough track through bad conditions is a benefit, the hound that cold trails excessively does not contribute to the hunt. A good nose should not be confused with simply tonguing when other hounds do not.

Endurance - Is a positive hound trait that is affected by desire, climate, conformation and conditioning. Hounds must have the desire and ability (through conformation and conditioning) to hunt without showing undue signs of weariness or fatigue. A flawless performance of short duration should never take precedent over a hound that is staying with his game after several hours.

Check Ability - In check working ability, a hound must show patience, intelligence, and the desire to account for his game. Upon losing contact with the line of scent, hounds are expected to immediately return to the point of loss and diligently work to reclaim the line.

Speed - In the proper balance, speed is an asset for keeping pressure on the game. A hound should only run as fast as conditions allow, however, should never lack the foot speed to run up to the level that provides the hunter with an exciting and efficient chase. Optimum speed is determined by both conditions and a hound's ability.

Correctness of Mouth - Hounds must be honest with their mouth. They should tongue freely while advancing the line and not open at all when lacking enough scent to make forward progress. Jumps and recoveries should be claimed quickly but honestly.

Desire - This necessary quality is the force that drives a hound. It helps him to succeed when things get tough. It puts him out front of the competition. It is a combination of strength, heart and the determination to pursue game.

Adaptability - A true mark of a hound's intelligence is his ability to smoothly and quickly adapt to different situations. Sudden changes in conditions, pack mates, terrain, cover, game, etc. require a hound that can adjust quickly and confidently.

Negative Characteristics

Quitting - Exhibited by hounds with a lack of desire, confidence, conditioning or sound conformation. This fault ranges in degree from briefly standing around while other hounds do the work to falling out of a chase and refusing or being unable to run.

Babbling / Tight Mouthed - Too much or too little mouth on track. The amount of mouth should correspond to the condition of the track and degree to which progress is being made. Extreme cases on each end of the spectrum would include ghost trailing and running silent.

Rough Running - Rough running is a term that collectively describes numerous faults in a hound's running style. The presence of these faults creates unnecessary checks and losses. In less severe cases it leads to a very inefficient, stop and go chase. When severe, it results in total failure to circle game. In the broadest sense, rough running includes such problems as skirting (leaving the line to gain the lead or avoiding heavy cover), swinging (wide, careless working of checks) and racing (too competitive or too fast for conditions).

Running Off Game - The severity of this fault is usually dependent on the type of off game being pursued and the fever with which it is run. A couple of off barks on non-target small game should not be judged as harshly as a lengthy run on fast game.

Backtracking - Continuing to work a line of scent in a direction opposite the way that the game traveled. Brief confusion should be noted but should not eliminate a hound from contention.

Pottering - A failure to make reasonable forward progress. Typically, hounds continue to tongue but fail to make any accomplishment with the track. A result of a lack of ability of ambition.
