UKC/AMERICAN FIELD STAFF IN THE FIELD

One of our highest priorities at United Kennel Club since the American Field acquisition has been to get out to some events and meet the American Field customer base and learn as much as we can about the great sport of pointing dog field trialing. Our travel schedule has been busy, but we are accomplishing exactly what we hoped to.

THE ADVENTURE STARTS HERE

National Amateur Grouse Championship Gladwin, MI — Todd Kellum (UKC VP) and Keegan Adriance (UKC Content Creator)

“Keegan and I represented UKC / American Field on a beautiful, October day in northern Michigan for the running of the National Amateur Grouse Championship. What a beautiful field trial venue that Gladwin unit is! Enjoyed learning about the venue and getting the lay of the land from Bob Wheelock. We walked a brace with Leeann Parnell who was very helpful in describing how the cover dog trials work. Later around the tailgate I had the distinct pleasure of meeting Mr. Wayne Fruchey. Yes, I had many questions for him about the late, great English Setter Ghost Train. I do wish I could have followed that dog for one day in his prime. Being a grouse hunting enthusiast with English Setters of my own, I very much enjoyed spending a trialing day at Gladwin and there will be many days to come just like it in my future.”

Quail Championship Invitational Paducah, KY — Todd Kellum (UKC VP)

“The morning after a traditional Thanksgiving dinner with family, I headed south to take part in the Quail Invitational which would be my first experience with an open all-age event. It was all that I expected and more. Allen Benson was the first person I met, and we had a nice visit about the weekend to come. From there Mike Crouse and Mary Sue Schalk kept me on track of where I needed to be and when. I had some previous experience with the West Kentucky WMA having attended retriever events there in the past. It is certainly a great field trial venue with a storied history. My personal riding coach Cora Clarey guided me around the courses on my trusty mount brought out of semi-retirement to babysit me for the weekend. And I will say, Obe did a fine job in this respect.”

Continental All-Age Championship Greenville, FL — Todd Kellum (UKC VP)

“Whether you know this treasure as Dixie Plantation, Tall Timbers, or Livingston Place, you certainly know how special of a venue this is for bird dog field trials. I apologize in that “special” does not do this property justice, but it is just so hard to put down in words! If you have not ridden in this trial put it on your bucket list. My thanks to Judge Sean Derrig for my mounts and putting up with my many questions. Randy Floyd and his crew were outstanding hosts and had the property in pristine condition. Thanks to Dr. Terry Terlep who I was fortunate to spend a day with and for the guided tour of this beautiful Red Hills Region. The bird dog tradition and history is so thick down there you can feel it. I will never tire of the stories of the great dogs from this region and the men who made their mark handling them.”

The National Championship Grand Junction, TN — Todd Kellum (UKC VP)

“I absolutely loved my time in Grand Junction, Tennessee. The first two days of activity at the Bird Dog Museum really sets the stage for the historical field trial that follows. Well done Tonya Brotherton and staff. And when you move from the Hall of Fame to the Ames Plantation, it feels like you are simply moving from one historical treasure to another one! If the two days that I rode braces on the Ames Plantation were not the most beautiful weather days to ride in the history of this event I'd like to see the days that beat them! I was amazed at the diversity and the perfection of these grounds from a hunter's perspective. Dr. Rick Carlisle does an amazing job in all respects. Charlie Frank Bryan doesn't do too bad either except he did burn the bacon one morning.”

National Amateur Free-For-All Championship Union Springs, AL — Domenick Muoio (Field Trial & Hunt Test Program Manager)

“I had the pleasure of attending my first horseback field trial at the National Amateur Free-For-All Championship. The Sedgefields Plantation was beyond gorgeous with its rolling hills, picturesque lakes, and immaculate grounds. The history behind the trial and the significance of the February 22nd start date was so interesting to me. It is no surprise that American field events are surrounded by history and tradition but the history and stories behind the old Sedgefield stakes and Mr. L.B. Maytag looking for his next dog, perfectly exemplify how deep the history runs in some of this sport's staple events. It also comes as no surprise how involved this area is in youth events to continue the rich history for many generations to come. I'd like to give a special thanks to Robert Moorer for the beautiful accommodations at the Shenandoah Plantation and helping to acquire sure-footed and smooth horses for me. My wonderful time in Union Springs was made possible by the hospitality of many, so thank you to everyone who played a role in making my experience it was and I look forward to seeing everyone at this event next year.”

You will notice the one thing we did not mention specifically regarding each event above and that is the reception from field trialers that the UKC staff received while attending these events. There is a reason for that. We can sum up every event by saying your support was nothing short of amazing. Across the board it was heartfelt and very much appreciated. It gives us much hope for not only the continuation of this great sport but the opportunity to build upon this brand, known and loved as American Field, for generations to come. With the help of each and every one of you who took the time to introduce yourselves, and introduce us to your sport, we have all the faith in the world that we have the support we need to accomplish whatever we set our minds to.

NBHA NATIONAL BREEDERS' INVITATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Erin's Deja Vu Named Champion

Christian Ogle | Grovespring, Missouri | February 9, 2022

This year's Breeders Invitational Championship, Futurity, and Jerry Kilgore Puppy Classic were held on the Sportsman's Association grounds near Grovespring, Mo. We started on Wednesday, February 9, and ran through Sunday, February 13.

We had a total of 88 entries for all three classes. With the help of the Missouri Bird Hunters and NBHA officers and spouses, we had no issues getting through these dogs in a timely manner. The dogs were on the line and ready to go. Birds were planted. Gallery wagon full of spectators. Thank you all.

This year's handler dinner was catered by Dowds Catfish House. The meal was donated by last year's winners, Mr. Greg Blair and Mr. Garry Malzone. Thank you so much.

We also had a special guest Purina consultant Mr. Terry Trzinski. The raffle and auction items provided a little entertainment and funds to help support the Futurity.

Our sponsors have our backs with help not only on these Championships but with our weekend trials. Gundog Central, Gundog Supply, Garmin, Mule Brand Clothing, our newest sponsor On X, and our biggest sponsor Purina Pro Plan. Thank you all so much.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP

We had three beautiful February days in Missouri for this stake. The weather can be a bit touchy in February, nice or ice, flip a coin. This trial would have coats shed as the handlers chased their chances for a Championship. The Missouri Bird Hunters would be right behind them planting birds, have snacks and coffee available, picking up and getting dogs on the line.

The judges, Mr. Jeremy Gulick of Kansas and Mr. Jay Lewis of Missouri, had 35 dogs to look at the next three days.

The second day would produce both the champion and runner-up. Congratulations to the winners. Champion Erin's Deja Vu, tri-colored setter female would run in the 14th brace. She is owned by Mr. Joseph Link, handled by Garry Malzone and scouted by Jillian Stuhr. She was cut loose from the west side at 1:45 p.m. The west side has taller switch grass, smaller fields, rolling hills with timber. She handled this with ease. A smooth running girl with all the class and style to win. She would grab an edge and go. 20 minutes in she was locked up on a single in Little Vine Loop. Garry flushed a single and would send her on her way. Working her way through the course she reach to front in the bigger fields of Sycamore Bottoms. At the 32-minute mark she stood tall in the bottoms. With birds produced, and all in order she was sent out again. After crossing the road she would eat up the ground in the big fields ahead. The 44-minute mark would be her third find deep on the southwest corner along the creek, a single kicked up where she stood tall as the single bobwhite was on its way. Looking great and still hunting forward, Garry would call her and scout Jillian in to water with eight minutes to go. She finished the hour strong and still going forward.

After an early pickup of brace No. 9, we started over across the road from the clubhouse with No. 10. Congrats to Runner-up Indian Creek Bocephus. Bo is owned by Edward Marron of New Jersey. Handled by Garry Malzone and scouted by Jillian Stuhr. He is a white and liver pointer male.

Bo is a machine on a mission when released. Breakaway would be 8:36 a.m. Putting on a show he would hunt the country trying to locate game. Easy to watch work with a ton of style and class. Bo would have his first and only bird contact at the 50-minute mark. Garry put the birds in the air and continued on. Finishing with the strength he started with Bo would finish the hour.

NATIONAL BIRD HUNTERS FUTURITY

We had 35 entries for this year's Futurity. Our judges were Mr. Tim Penn from Missouri. Mr. Penn scratched his entry after the draw to step in and help judge. Mr. Andy Neria from Kansas was our other judge. These are two very capable and confident judges that know what they are looking at. They are looking for next year and Future years' champions.

We started the qualifying Friday after announcing our Championship and lunch. We ran Friday and completed our 17 braces Saturday.

Our callback dogs would run Sunday morning after a good rest. We had six callbacks: Foxy Lady Sadie, Irish setter female, Snow's Home Again Katie, KC'S Guitar Man, Sycamore Creek Cody, Warjams Big Mac Daddy, Glover's Pepper Shaker. Four were on standby: Indian Creek Sprout, Bundy's Buckeye Molly, Snow's Sea Dollar, My Buddy Brody.

Both judges were excited about the talent that was in this year's Derby class. They also said there were thirteen dogs that could have made the callback and they had to spilt hairs to make the final decision.

We cut the dogs loose at 9:32 a.m. We ran three hour braces for the callback. After a couple pick ups the 1st brace of the stand by dogs would be called to the line. After this brace the judges would have their four placements.

GYP HILLS FIELD TRIAL CLUB

Amateur Trial

Paul Roederer | Medicine Lodge, Kansas | February 19, 2022

The Gyp Hills Field Trial Club held its all amateur club trial on February 19-20 at the expansive Z Bar Ranch located about thirty miles southwest of Medicine Lodge, Kan.

The adult stakes were one-hour Amateur Invitational Points and Purina Points stakes, the Derby an Amateur Derby Invitational Points stake; all run on wild birds only.

Ranch Manager Keith Yearout has welcomed us without hesitation for the last eleven years and has lent the club the use of any ranch equipment we might need to mow trails through the heavy native grass pastures along the courses. We also have had their assistance in remodeling the headquarters building which provides trialers a comfortable spot with heat, air, plumbing and full kitchen.

Longtime ranch worker Thane Yunker has been a tremendous help to us by driving our dog wagon which is no small feat on this ranch. The ranch's 43,000 acres are grazed only by buffalo and are managed to provide optimal cover for native bobwhite quail, pheasant and true lesser prairie chicken.

We saw more lesser prairie chickens and pheasants than in any previous trials; quail were scarce but the shooting dogs showed us where they hid. Scenting conditions were horrid in the intense drought this area has been under and hindered further by hot, sunny days during the trial.

Many thanks to Donnie Jeffrey who came in from Omaha, Neb., to judge the All-Age and Shooting Dog Stakes, Lou Qualtiere from Canada and Missouri who judged the All-Age and Derby, and Joe Worsham who judged the Shooting Dog Stake.

The club thanks Purina and Greg Blair for their support in providing Pro Plan dog food, hats and advertising support. Thanks also to Carolyn Roederer who assisted in dog wagon duties and cooked our meals.

AMATEUR SHOOTING DOG STAKE

The Shooting Dog stake ran on a bird-finding day with Paul Roederer's Cruise Rocket convincingly winning with two exciting wild coveys combined with a huge front- running race. The race started with a half mile cast to the nearest ridge where he showed up and crossed to the front and continued to impress on the ground. The first find at about 25 was far to the front down a fenceline that resulted in a statuesque find at a quarter mile standing in one of the few alfalfa fields on the ranch. He stood there for quite a while before we got there and flushed a large covey right in front, the dog not twitching a hair and maintaining his composure after shot.

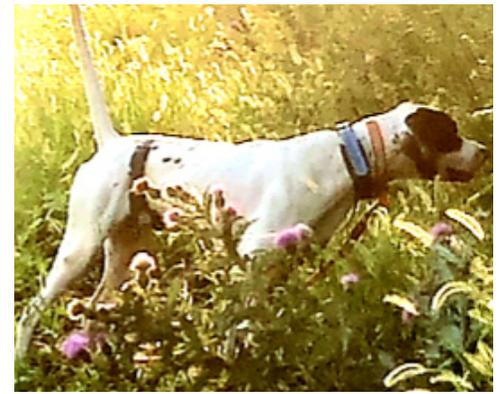

Taken on, he made a big swing along hillsides bordering a creek. Not long after, at 45, he skirted a plum thicket, cast up a draw and was found on point. He looked positive with 12 o'clock style, a straight vertical tail and high head. When deer erupted from a nearby plum thicket he didn't move and handler flushed a nice covey wadded up in front, Cruiser motionless before and after the shot until taken on to finish strong.

Greg Sand's champion and many-time winner Traveler's Split Rail garnered second on a hot afternoon, handling kindly and to the front. At about 40 he whirled about and nailed an antsy covey that took wing before Greg could even flush, Traveler withstanding the temptation of the flight and subsequent shot. Taken on, he finished in very heavy cover as strong as he started.

Third was awarded to longtime Oklahoma trailer Mike Griffin and his Griff's Big Ransom that ran a heat-defying race in heavy cover but could not come up with a find.

Jeanette Heise's Ten Oaks Annie A ran a smooth even race and made a good case for placement. Doug Meyer's You Can Never Tell could have been in the mix after finding a nice covey resting in plum thickets only 5 minutes after breakaway. It was very hot and sunny but she gravitated right to them. Doug got them airborne and shot but You Can Never Tell took steps as Meyer shot.

AMATEUR ALL-AGE STAKE

The All-Age was won by Doug Meyer's Greypointe Luminoso with a big race requiring little scouting. Luminoso has won this trial before as these big prairie grounds seem to suit his ambition.

Steve Auxier came down from Nebraska and did well as his Intensive Chain Breaker earned second and Working Class garnered third, both based on race on a day where birds were hard to find.

3d—WORKING CLASS, 1658384, pointer male, by Elhew Fibber McGee—Ice's Elhew Reba. Steve Auxier, owner and handler.

AMATEUR DERBY

The Derby was very competitive as handlers competed for Amateur Derby Invitational points and produced three outstanding winners with big races.

First was Doug Meyer's Greypointe Quiere, commonly known as Waylon for us who don't speak Spanish. He had an outstanding reaching to the limits very mature looking race, flowing forward at all times running to objectives and keeping on any lines to their conclusion. He had to finish in a plum thicket infested river bottom where he was not seen for 5 minutes before time and showed up on cue at time.

A very close second was Rodney Shoemaker's HP Shots Fired who had a very fast and forward race. He was gone a little over 5 minutes at the end with Rodney riding hard to round him up. Any other time this would be a first place race. Steve Auxier rounded out third with a race a little less consistent than the other two but showing some heels indicating an all-age future.

Judges: Lou Qualtiere and Paul Roederer

WOODLAWN FIELD TRIAL CLUB

Hendrix's Touch Up Wins Amateur All-Age

Lisa Suiter Little | Laws Hill, Mississippi | February 25, 2022

The Woodlawn Field Trial Club was honored to host their amateur trial on the wonderful grounds of Hendrix Farms during the weekend of February 25–27.

Mr. Guy Hendrix and Mr. Burke Hendrix graciously agreed to the club's use of the grounds after the club was not able to secure the Fort Campbell Outdoor Recreation Area. We cannot say "thank you" enough to these fine gentlemen.

During the three-day event competitors experienced unusually cold and rainy weather, with the ground becoming more saturated each day as the rains poured down. Temperatures barely held above freezing on Friday and Saturday. This unseasonable weather did not dampen the competitors' spirits as bird work was plentiful each brace of the trial.

The Hendrix family has worked very hard to clear wooded areas, establish cover, and improve the horse paths for the participants and canine competitors, the club officials heard multiple times how wonderful the grounds were.

We are also for thankful for the trial sponsorship by Sportsman's Pride through assistance with advertising and gift cards for the winners.

We were blessed to have three fantastic judges for the trial. Judging the Amateur All-Age Stake was Betty Shearouse. Betty hails from Kimball, Tenn., and is an experienced, highly knowledgeable field trailer. Betty has competed successfully in all aspects of the amateur circuit with her English setters. Most notable in my mind is the success story of High Anxiety's Bonfire, aka Bonnie. My husband, Scott Little, spent many a field trial scouting this strong-willed, stylish female. Bonnie achieved the pinnacle of her career by qualifying for the National Championship under the guiding hands of professional handler Ray Warren. As fate would have it, Bonnie came in season the morning of her brace and was unable to compete. Bonnie is now retired, but happily greeted her former scout Friday night with barks and a wagging tail. Betty has always been eager to help our sport succeed. She has served as a club officer, trial reporter, demonstrations at promotional events, and much more.

Hunter Clark fulfilled the judicial saddle for all three Amateur stakes of the trial. Hunter lives in Ethel, Miss. He grew up in the Holly Springs, Miss., area where his grandfather served as the minister of a local church.

Through church membership, Hunter met Jonathan Burch, Elton Bray, and Joey McAlexander. Hunter has been attending field trials in Region 6 for several years and has served as a scout for many members. His fun-loving personality and ethic of hard work have endeared him to us all. He has a strong interest in the sport and eagerness to learn about all aspects of the competition. I hope we each encourage his continued involvement.

Elton Bray, of Holly Springs, Miss., served as judge for the Amateur Derby and Shooting Dog Stakes with Hunter. Elton has also been an active member of Region 6 for several years and has a wealth of knowledge of the sport. His experiences with field trialing in Marshall County developed his love of the sport. Over the years Elton has served as a judge, scout, club officer, and reporter. Most recently, Elton was the reporter for the National Open Shooting Dog Championship held at Sedgefields Plantation in Union Springs, Ala. Elton keeps the mood light and fun with his endearing sense of humor. Elton moonlights in horse training and sales; he has a keen eye for a good field trial prospect. I must also add that we were honored to have the company of Elton's sweetheart Kayla at the trial. She is a joy to be around.

THE WINNERS

The Amateur All-Age Stake drew twelve entries and was won by Hendrix's Touch Up for owners Guy and Burke Hendrix, with Burke in the handler's seat. The orange and white male pointer impressed the judges with his five pieces of clean birdwork, to the front ground race. The Amateur All-Age Stake drew twelve entries and was won by Hendrix's Touch Up for owners Guy and Burke Hendrix, with Burke in the handler's seat. The orange and white male pointer impressed the judges with his five pieces of clean birdwork, to the front ground race, and big range casts in the agricultural fields of the Friday afternoon second hour brace. Second place honors were awarded to Coldwater Paradise, three-year-old orange and white female pointer that is owned and handled by Gary McKibben. Paradise had the second hour of Friday morning. During her brace she garnered three finds, an unproductive and a very nice ground race. David Williams took home the third placement with his three-year-old liver and white female pointer Rebel Dreams. Rebel Dreams ran in the very first brace of the trial and had two divided finds and a back that earned her the attention of the judges.

The Amateur Derby drew twelve entries and was won by Phillips Linebacker, orange and white pointer male that is handled by Mike Small for owners Nathan Phillips and Orrin Ingram. Linebacker was reported by the judges to have one find, a pile of feathers, and a strong ground race during the fourth brace. Second was awarded to Shagtime Buck, orange and white male English setter for owner-handler Chris Cagle. Buck had one find and a very nice ground race during the first brace of the stake on Saturday morning. Rounding out the winners' circle was Lam's Prime Choice, a white and liver male pointer owned and handled by Jon Lam. Judges reported an impressive ground race by this up-and-coming prospect.

Kent Walker took home top honors in the Amateur Shooting Dog Stake with his liver and white pointer male, Game On. "Griz," at eight years old, put on a show in the last brace of the trial with three well-mannered bird finds and a ground race that required very little effort from his handler. Warioto's Crazy Daisy garnered the second for her handler Scott Little. This orange and white female is co-owned by Scott with his wife Lisa. "Daisy" overcame a slow start to her brace with three stylish finds and increased intensity in her ground race. Completing the winners' circle was Shearjoy's Smooth As Silk for owner-handler Betty Shearouse. Silk is an orange and white setter that proved her worth with a strong forward race and a steadiness on point of a superb piece of bird work at pickup time.

The officers would like to thank again the Hendrix family, judges, and competitors for making this a trial filled with fun and fellowship. I would be remiss if I did not mention the efforts of the dog wagon crew of Guy and Lily Kate Hendrix along with Brad Kennedy.

I would also like to thank Jonathan Burch, Burke Hendrix, Joe Hughes, Joey McAlexander, John Chandler Strickland, and Lowry Strickland for serving as marshals and scouts for the trial. It takes a team to run a successful trial and we are blessed with the best in Region 6.

CARROLL COUNTY (TENNESSEE) OPEN STAKES

Lynn Taylor Memorial Open All-Age and Open Derby

Jim Atchison | Huntingdon, Tennessee | February 26, 2022

The Lynn Taylor Memorial Open All-Age Stake scheduled to start February 24 was delayed by the Carroll County Field Trial Club until Saturday, February 26, because of heavy rains that put the annual running on hold.

Once begun, 31 All-Age and six Derby contenders competed on the grounds near Huntingdon, Tenn., during the pleasant three days that followed. Only a change of the first hour course was required for the All-Age heats, the result of a ditch with water too deep to cross.

Purina generously sponsored the trials and helped the club both financially and by donating bags of dog food which were awarded to the winners of both contests.

Judges for both stakes were Jim Lawless from Sparta, Ill., and Perry Lacy from Elkton, Ky. Both Purina's sponsorship and the services of the judges were greatly appreciated.

A faithful troop of Carroll County Field Trial Club members descended on the grounds a few days prior to the beginning of the trials. Their work, coupled with the year round efforts of David Williams who owns most of the land upon the three one-hour courses are laid out, will be noted at the end of this report in "The Carroll County Effort".

Misty Morn Masked Man won first place in the Open All-Age stake. The seven-year-old pointer's win pleased his owner-handler, Joey McAlexander of Holly Springs, Miss., tremendously, as it did the amiable owner's large number of friends who were present for the announcement of the winners.

Lester's Storm Surge, owned by Tommy and Bonnie Hamilton of Springfield, Ky., and handled by Gary Lester, won second. The third place award was earned by Burch's Set'Em Up Joe, owned and handled by Jonathan Burch of Holly Springs, Miss.

Phillips Linebacker, owned by Orrin Ingram of Franklin Tennessee and Nathan Phillips of Oakland City, Ind., was handled by Nathan Phillips to win first place in the Open Derby. Knight's Little John, owned by Scott Griffin of Mint Hill, N. C., and handled by Ike Todd, won second. Ike Todd also handled the third place winner, Haney's Storm Warning, owned by Chris Cagle from Woodlawn, Tenn.

OPEN ALL-AGE WINNERS

Misty Morn Masked Man ran a memorable hour for Joey McAlexander. He looked great through the flush and shot each of the three times he stood. His first find as at 18, his second at 23, and the third when he was found pointed shortly after the judges called for pickup. He was strong, handsome, stylish, and responsive throughout the 60 minutes, making great moves hoped for from an all-age winner. His last-brace performance fulfilled the old adage of "saving the best for last".

Lester's Storm Surge won second with his performance in 30° weather of the first brace on the opening morning. He had an unproductive at 13, possibly resulting from birds that had just flown. After a lengthy flushing effort brought nothing, he was cast forward and went no more than about 50 yards, pointed again, and birds were flushed. At 37 he backed his brace mate on the north part of the Miles Farm. Then, after successfully making the two crossings of the abandoned railroad right of way, he pointed and Lester flushed on the hill that overlooks Sandy River bottom and finished the hour well.

Burch's Set'Em Up Joe won third with his performance on the third hour course. He had two finds, the first at 44 in the rolling hills area near Green-Allen Springs Road and the second at 59 in the area directly west of Smyrna Road and the field trial clubhouse and stables. He was strong and stylish throughout his 60 minutes under judgment.

THE ALL-AGE RUNNING

The sky was cloudy and the temperature about 30 as Jamie Daniels loosed Dominator's Bull Market and Gary Lester loosed Lester's Storm Surge, the second place winner. Bull Market backed his bracemate at 13 and again at 17. He then had an unproductive stand at 26 and continued to finish the hour, finding birds at 37 as he raced along a long strip of the first hour course that extends northward toward the community of Buena Vista.

Whippoorwill Vette, owned by Dale Bush and handled by Larry Huffman, was braced with Miller's Speed Dial, handled by Gary Lester, in the second brace. Huffman flushed birds as his pointer stood at 32 and both handlers shot at 36 while the dogs shared a divided find in the field north of the clubhouse and stables. Lester immediately got his retrieval device at the end of the hour in order to locate Speed Dial.

Whippoorwill Justified, owned by Ronnie Spears and handled by Larry Huffman, and Rebel Cause handled by Jamie Daniels, were in the field for brace No. 3. The former National Champion had a find for Huffman at 17 while circling the Quiet Place Loop. He then had an unproductive at 24 and finished the hour. Rebel Cause had an unproductive and hunted throughout the hour but found no birds.

Lester's Another Shock Wave, handled by Gary Lester for owners Tommy and Bonnie Hamilton, and Nosam's Sweet Water, handled by Larry Huffman for Jeff Busby, went immediately after lunch. Shock Wave had two unproductives for Lester, and Huffman elected to pick up Sweet Water at 34 near grain bins on the Miles Farm.

Dominator's Rebel Rogue, handled by Jamie Daniels, and Coldwater Odyssey, owned by Gary McKibben and handled by Weldon Bennett, went next. Neither finished the hour as Rogue experienced a problem with a shoulder and Odyssey, after locating birds on Sickle Pod Hill at 30 moved a couple of steps when Bennett shot over him at 36.

Both Miller's Blindsider, handled by Jamie Daniels, and Bonner's Hot Rize, owned by Jannie Chapman and handled by Gary Lester, finished the sixth and final hour of the first day of running. Blindsider had birds at 43 on the Quiet Place Loop and pointed again at 51 in bicolor and briars so dense that Daniels had no alternative but to take him by the collar and move on to the end of the hour. Hot Rize pointed at 15 but Lester moved no birds. He then finished the hour remaining birdless.

During the first hour on Sunday morning neither Lester's Storm Chaser, handled by Gary Lester for Jannie Chapman, nor Como Rain, handled by Billy Blackwell who co-owns the dog with Doug Arthur and David and Rachel Russell, finished the 60 minutes. Storm Chaser had unproductive stands at 4 and 26 and was put into his harness. Como Rain backed Storm Chaser both times but was picked up early, at 42.

Miller's White Reign, owned by Ric Peterson and handled by Brody Byrd, and Rebel Dreams, owned and handled by David Williams, went next, in the eighth brace. White Reign ran throughout the allotted time but was birdless. Rebel Dreams finished the hour and had one find which came in the last quarter hour of her effort.

Coldwater Thunder, the 2021 National Champion owned by Doug Arthur, Billy Blackwell, and David and Rachel Russell went next, under Blackwell's whistle. She was picked up at 28. Burch's Set'Em Up Joe, the third place winner, was the bracemate.

The tenth hour of the stake saw Lester's Shock Wave, the current reigning National Champion owned by Tommy and Bonnie Hamilton and handled by Gary Lester, braced with Rebel Grace, owned and handled by David Williams. Shock Wave had birds at 15 on the north side of a wheat field owned by the late Harold Miller and later stood an unproductive at 32 in the area toward Buena Vista before finishing the hour. Rebel Grace had trouble negotiating the turns necessary to make the first railroad crossing and stay on course early in the second quarter-hour. Yet Williams got her back to the front and she found birds at 45 while continuing to finish the hour.

Lester's Boss Man, owned by David Thompson and handled by Gary Lester, went next, braced with Superstition's Final Touch, handled by Brody Byrd for Ric Peterson who was in the gallery throughout Sunday. Boss Man had an unproductive at 25 on Sickle Pod Hill and then found birds at 57 to finish the hour. Final Touch hunted the full hour but was birdless.

Rebel Survivor, owned and handled by David Williams, and Como Thunder, handled by David Russell for the four-person partnership mentioned earlier and of which he is a part, were the last pair to run on Sunday. Rebel Survivor found and Williams flushed a single along the gravel road leaving the Vickers Farm. Later, in the area north of an old farrowing house for hogs, Thunder pointed and Survivor backed. After being unable to flush, Russell, being unaware that Williams' dog was backing, tapped his dog to relocate without Williams having the opportunity to collar his dog. Thus, both dogs hunted during the relocation effort but found no birds. They then finished the hour.

Hilltopper Top Dog, owned and handled by John Russell, was loosed on Monday morning with Shearjoy's Triple Threat; the only setter in the contest, owned by Betty Shearouse who was in the gallery while Burke Hendrix did the handling. Hilltopper found birds a good distance out into a wheat field at 17. Then both dogs finished the hour but moved no more birds.

Hendrix Copper Line and Superstition Jake went next in No. 14. Copper Line was handled by Burke Hendrix, who owns the dog with his dad, Guy Hendrix. Jake was handled by Brody Byrd for Ric Peterson. Hendrix flushed birds while Copper Line stood at 32 and attempted to flush at pickup time in an unproductive effort. Jake finished the hour but was birdless.

The All-Age stake ended with Hendrix Touch Up, owned by Guy and Burke Hendrix, paired with Misty Morn Masked Man, the first place winner. Touch Up finished the hour for Burke but found no birds.

DERBY WINNERS

None of the Derby winners found any birds during their 30-minute efforts but the three winners and others that competed demonstrated outstanding strength, skill, and determination. They proved themselves to be definitely a field of dogs with great All-Age potential.

Phillips Linebacker won first by being extremely strong as he ran the course's edges and fortuitously finishing the allotted time at a location which enable him to show the judges a remarkable finish.

Knight's Little John won second, also by showing himself to be strong and good running as he looked great running the edges of big fields. Although he needed very little coaching, he was responsive and easily handled.

Haney's Storm Warning won third. His lot fell to run on a part of the course upon which he was not able to show himself as easily as the others. Yet the difficulty of negotiating the course did not diminish his ability to impress the judges sufficiently to earn the placement.

THE CARROLL COUNTY EFFORT

As mentioned earlier, David Williams owns most of the land upon which the Carroll County trials are run. The family of the late Harold Miller and at least one other owner permit the use of tracts that conveniently provide connections between some of Williams' farms. David Williams works year-round planning, planting, mowing, releasing birds, feeding birds, maintaining crossings, burning, and doing everything else involved with practicing the best known procedures available for ensuring the quality of and habitat on the Carroll County grounds.

Gary McKibben is secretary/treasurer of the club. Weldon Bennett, Jamie Daniels, Angie Williams, Jim and Charlotte Atchison, Phillip Barnett, Michelle Clark, LeBob Stanfill, Steve Barnett, Tommy Joe and Evelyn Hall, and others took care of shopping, cooking, cleaning facilities, putting out birds, reporting, marshalling, operating the dog wagon, and everything else involved with hosting the outstanding trials that have been run on the grounds for many years.

Just as they have for nearly three decades, the members of the Carroll County field trial family again hosted a first class field trial in a congenial and laid back atmosphere that might be metaphorically compared to coming together for a family reunion or other gathering where one comes together with old friends while also having the opportunity to make new friends.

REGION 8 OPEN ALL-AGE

In Honor of Preston Trimble

Mike Griffin | Inola, Oklahoma | February 28, 2022

I would like to start off by thanking Purina for all they do to help field trials. Without the support they give we could not put trials on. Greg Blair does a wonderful job taking care of our sport. I wish to thank him a lot.

We also add our thanks and appreciation to the Ingersoll family for their hospitality in providing the Ingersoll Ranch as a venue for our trials for more than sixty years.

We had a short entry but lots of quality dogs. The weather was warm, windy conditions were tough at best. A lot of dogs did a good job, worked hard as did the handlers. Judges Barry Ward of Topeka, Kan., and Johnny Van Horn of Dardanelle, Ark., did a great job; I wish to thank them for their effort. These are the dogs they chose.

THE WINNERS

First was Westfall's Mandalay, pointer male handled by Andy Daugherty. Bill Westfall's pointer ran a great race coupled with three good finds with style and grace. He is a powerful dog with good rapport to handler. A well-deserved win.

Second was Lowrider Frank in the string of Allen Vincent. Frank rendered a steady all-age race like he always does. He is always around birds seems to know where to find them. He had also had three finds well handled and looked great on his game in front, and finished strong.

Miss Stylin Sue, also handled by Vincent, ran a very forward all-age race easy to keep to front. She runs big but stays in contact with handler. This coupled with two nice finds with style earned her the placement.

In conclusion, we had a good trial with good judges who did a good job. Thanks to Lynn Oxendine for helping with lunches and marshaling.

Bob Barker who marshaled open gates and whatever he could do. Barry Moore helped marshal and got gates also. Wish to thank all these folks for their help.

SOUTHEASTERN QUAIL CHAMPIONSHIP

Confident Nation named Champion

The thirty-second renewal of the Southeastern Quail Championship got underway on March 2. After three- and one-half days of competition under less-than-ideal hunting conditions, the judges named Confident Nation, a coming four-year-old pointer male, the new champion. The dog is owned by Scott Jordan of Grant, Minn., and was handled by Luke Eisenhart.

The new champion ran the third morning on the first course. The dog was credited with four finds, a consistently forward all-age race, and a good finish.

Runner-up honors went to Miller's Blindsider, five-year-old pointer male owned by Nick Berrong from Maryville, Tenn. The dog ran the last morning on the first course and was handled by Jamie Daniels. Blindsider was credited with a divided fine, two good individual finds, an unproductive stand, and a good ground effort.

Lee Phillips and Ricky Furney returned as judges. Their qualifications are well known and will not be reiterated here. Suffice it to say they know what should win here and rode hard enough to look for it. Qualified judges are hard to come by and the Southeastern thanks them for being willing to take the time and extend the effort to judge the trial.

This trial ran four years as a Classic before being conducted the last 32 years as a Championship. For many of those years, the Southeastern Shooting Dog Championship followed the All-Age stake on the same grounds. Having two large entry trials back-to-back delayed burning so the Shooting Dog event was moved. It eventually ended up at Senah Plantation.

Over the years, a lot has changed. Competitors missing from earlier years include Robin Gates, Fred Dileo, Freddie Rayl, Bubba Moreland, Ricky Furney, Lee Phillips, Billy Wayne Morton, Steve Hurdle, Charles Morton, and Tommy Davis. The current generation of trainers is just as talented, and their dogs are just as good. There just are not as many of them. Hence, entries are down here and everywhere.

The grounds have taken a beating the last three years. First there was Hurricane Michael three years ago and then last March a tornado went through the courses. Because the land was wet from excessive rain, multiple trees were uprooted. The use of heavy equipment was hampered by the soft ground. Despite all the handicaps, most of the debris has been cleared although multiple burn piles remain. Mowing on Abigail improved that portion of the courses this year.

The recent hunting season was a good one. Birds were plentiful when hunting conditions were decent. Two weeks before the trial, 29 coveys were moved in three hours one morning. However, birds could be scarce on warm blue bird afternoons which is exactly what the conditions were during the trial. Probably more birds were ridden up than pointed.

That stated, there were multiple good performances in the trial. Most were on the first course in the morning which was where the winning dogs ran. However, there were two considered jobs that were done in the afternoon. Early pickups during the hot afternoons had the added effect of depriving later dogs of running when birds might have started to move.

The Club thanks the landowners for allowing the trial to use their grounds. They include Richard Burk (Abigail), Frank Foley (Ecila), and the Deal family (Chickasaw). Their generosity is appreciated.

Others who deserve thanks include Greg Blair and Purina for supporting the trial and hosting the barbecue luncheon. Lamar Childers and Gary Lester each paid for lunch one day.

In the early days, multiple unpaid volunteers did the work associated with the trial. Only this reporter and Lamar Childers remain in that category. Now most of the work is left to employees. Michael Jackson (Chickasaw) took care of the barn. Wilson Napier (Chickasaw) stocked and drove the Bird Buggy and got the dogs to the line. Willis Wright (Abigail) brought extra horses for the judges. Andy Trocheck (Ecila) directed the course on that portion.

THE WINNERS AND OTHERS

Confident Nation, the 2022 Southeastern Quail Champion, was raised and developed by owner Scott Jordan. The dog was sired by True Confidence and is out of Southern Songbird, a line bred Erin's Wild Rose daughter.

This is the fourth championship title for Confident Nation. Previous wins include the National Amateur Derby Championship, the Region 19 Amateur All-Age Championship, and the National Prairie Chicken Championship, all under the whistle of his owner.

Confident Nation won the current event just like his sire, True Confidence, did in 2019. The discussion was more about the runner-up than the champion.

Miller's Blindsider, the runner-up, was also sired by a previous winner of the Southeastern, Just Irresistible. Blindsider is no stranger to the winner's circle. Previous wins include the National Derby Championship, the Masters Quail Championship and runner-up placements in the Florida and Southeastern Championships plus numerous other placements in non-championship events.

The dog has been a master of consistency for owner Nick Berrong and trainer Jamie Daniels.

Several dogs other than the winners had commendable performances. After the first day, Erin's Perfect Storm and Shadow's Lord Magic were under consideration. The next morning, Touch Malcolm Story was added. The third day, Confident Nation moved all the contenders down and the last morning, Miller's Blindsider displaced all but Confidence Nation.

The Winning Brace. The first brace of the third day (No. 13) matched Showtime Game Changer (Copeland) with Confident Nation (Eisenhart). The temperature was 52° and was predicted to reach into the 80s later.

Both dogs were aggressive in the early going. Point was called for Nation to the right front at 3. The dog was standing on the near side of the big wet weather pond. Birds were flushed and the dog showed good style and manners. Eisenhart regained the front from around the far side of the pond and entered the hourglass field slightly ahead of the judges at 8. Meanwhile, Game Changer had been running well. Copeland pointed his dog out at 9 going down the right side of the hourglass field. Both handlers went through the gap heading toward the chute at 10. Nation returned to Eisenhart from the left front at 12 and had a second find straight ahead at 14. Copeland searched on the right and made contact with Game Changer. At 18 point was called for Nation on the right. A third well handled find was credited to the dog. Copeland decided not to make the water crossing onto Abigail and put his dog in harness at 20.

Eisenhart turned Nation loose as the judges crossed the water at 21. He showed the dog ahead shortly thereafter. Nation handled his fourth covey at 24. At this point, the dog needed to show the judges a consistent all-age ground effort. Eisenhart was able to achieve that result. The dog was able to string together one good swing after another and to show enough, but not too much. At 54 Nation was found straight ahead on point. Eisenhart had seen birds lift from the area and elected to forgo a flushing attempt. The dog went on to a good finish. The dog was credited with four flawless finds, an impressive all-age ground effort, and a strong finish. It was obvious to all that Confident Nation was the dog to beat.

The Runner-Up Brace. The first brace of the last morning (No. 19) was delayed by a heavy fog.

Miller's Blindsider (Daniels) and Touch's Whitey Ford (McLean) were finally released at 8:40 a.m. Nick Berrong, the owner of Blindsider, was mounted to support his entry. Both dogs took the right side of the course where the call of point was heard at 2. A divided find was credited. The dogs had birds at the base of a longleaf stand above the feed trail. Both handlers regained the course at 6 and sent their scouts to the left. The hourglass field was entered at 9. Whitey Ford came back to McLean at 11 then went down the near edge of pond where he had a good find at 15. Blindsider continued down the hourglass field edge and returned from the left in the chute at 16. Both dogs showed well in the distal chute area. McLean called point for Whitey Ford at 20. The dog was styled up where birds have been found before, but this time they were not home.

The water crossing onto Abigail was made at 24. Blindsider had a good find to the right front at 26. Birds were well located, and the dog was stylish and mannerly. Whitey Ford made a good swing on the right, returned at 28, and then made another cast to the left front. Blindsider returned from the right front before the creek crossing. Both handlers made the crossing at 32 and sent their dogs straight ahead. Point was called on the right for Whitey Ford at 33, but the dog corrected. McLean was soon back to the front with his dog. At 35 Daniels called point for Blindsider straight ahead. Whitey Ford went in front and McLean put him in harness. Daniels accepted an unproductive after a failed relocation effort. Blindsider continued to make some showy swings the next few minutes. Ecila was entered at 46. Daniels showed the dog ahead at 49 then called point at 52. Blindsider had birds on the right near some plum bushes and was flawless for the flush and shot. The dog continued to show well. Daniels pointed him out crossing a hill well forward then going straight at 57. Blindsider was not seen at pickup. The judges continued to ride forward hoping to get a glimpse of the dog which returned on his own from the near left side. They considered the overall performance of Blindsider to be second only to Confidence Nation at this point with two more braces to go.

THE RUNNING

The first brace consisted of Erin's Wild Atlantic Way (Eisenhart) and Woodville's Yukon Cornelius (McLean). Both dogs were aggressive in the early going. The hourglass field was entered at 7. Cornelius returned to McLean at 12 just before the chute and was shown ahead at 16. Eisenhart asked for his retrieval device at 19. McLean released his dog at 21 as the judges crossed the water onto Abigail. Cornelius continued to run plenty but had no birdwork. McLean called it quits at 51.

The second morning brace — Lester's Shockwave (Lester) and Dominator's Bull Market (Daniels) — was released just after entering Ecila. Lester showed Shockwave well ahead at 4 then both dogs were close for a spell. Shockwave was pointing straight ahead at 10. The dog had birds and handled them in good fashion. Point was called to the right front for Bull Market at 15. At the same time Shockwave was seen pointing about 100 yards ahead. Lester requested a relocation and got it. Birds lifted in front. Meanwhile, Daniels had to accept an unproductive. Shockwave had a third well-handled find at 22. At 31 Shockwave pointed again and was backed by Bull Market. Birds had been seen to leave the area, so Lester decided against a flushing attempt. Daniels picked Bull Market up at 32. Lester continued with Shockwave. The dog made some decent casts and pointed again at 43 about sixty yards ahead. Lester accepted an unproductive after a relocation attempt failed. However, birds flew when Lester mounted and rode off. Shockwave shortened for a while, was not seen at pickup, but returned within judgment. The reigning National Champion was credited with three finds, an unproductive, and a moderate ground effort.

The last brace of the first morning matched Touch's Blue Moon (Cody McLean) with Senah's Back In Business (Norman). The temperature had risen, and the sky was bright and blue. The brace began on Ecila after the final turn back toward Abigail. McLean showed Blue Moon well ahead at 3. Both handlers crossed onto Abigail with their dogs at 7 and both were shown before the creek crossing at 12. McLean had Blue Moon ahead at 15 and then showed the dog far ahead at 18. Chickasaw was entered at 25. McLean searched deep on the right before requesting his device at 30. Back In Business returned to Norman at 28 and stayed to the front and ran well but was not rewarded for the effort. It was a strange morning. Many more birds were ridden up than pointed.

As the participants gathered for the first brace after lunch, few had high expectations. The temperature was 82°, it was dry and dusty, and the sky was devoid of any cloud cover. It was in those conditions that Erin's Perfect Storm (Eisenhart) and Miller's Speed Dial (Lester) were released behind the barn at 2:00 p.m. Both dogs ranged well in the early going. Eisenhart called point on the left at 8. Perfect Storm had not been seen since the breakaway. Birds were produced and the dog was mannerly for the flush and shot. Perfect Storm was shown going down the right side of the hourglass field at 10. The open gap on the near side of Watt's Pond was crossed at 11. Lester searched on the far side of the next field for Speed Dial. Perfect Storm returned from the left just after the chute was entered at 15 and was shown ahead on the right. Lester got Speed Dial back toward the end of the chute area. Both handlers had their dog for the water crossing at 22 and released them as the judges crossed over onto Abigail. Both dogs were shown several times heading toward the creek. Eisenhart got Perfect Storm across the creek slightly ahead of Lester and Speed Dial at 34. Lester showed his dog on the right before the dog crossed over and pointed in a brushy area to the left front. Perfect Storm was in a backing position. Lester flushed birds and shot in front of the mannerly dog. Perfect Storm pointed about 100 yards ahead in another brushy area. Eisenhart had to accept an unproductive at 42. At 43 Perfect Storm whirled and pointed next to a small pine tree in a mowed area. There was little to gain and a lot to lose by a flushing attempt, so Eisenhart collared the dog. As he did, a single exploded out of the unlikely spot. Speed Dial was seen on a good cast to the right front at 47. Point was called for Perfect Storm deep to the left front at 51 just before crossing the road onto Ecila. The dog carded another good find. Lester had Speed Dial for the crossing. Eisenhart regained the front with his dog at 55. Speed Dial returned from the left at 58. Perfect Storm reappeared at 59. Both finished ahead.

Dominator's Wild Bill (Daniels) and Erin's Silver Lining (Raynor) began brace No. 5 at the first right turn on Ecila. Both were aggressive in their early application. Silver Lining returned from the front at 10. Both dogs were in toll at 16. Wild Bill was seen far ahead at 22. Raynor searched left while Daniels looked on the right. Raynor asked for his retrieval unit at 30. Daniels got his at 39. No birds were pointed in the terrible conditions although four coveys were ridden up by the gallery.

The final brace of the afternoon consisted of Lester's Storm Surge (Lester) and Shadow's Lord Magic (Eisenhart). Carl Bowman was in the mounted gallery in support of Lord Magic. The dogs were released about fifteen minutes shy of the crossing back onto Abigail. Lester called point for Storm Surge at 5. An unproductive was charged after a relocation effort failed. Eisenhart rode aggressively to maintain contact with Lord Magic. Both handlers made the return to Abigail with their dogs at 16. Lester showed Storm Surge ahead on the right at 19. Both handlers had their dogs through the creek crossing at 21. Point was called by one of the scouts on the right at 24. Lester rode to investigate but found the dog moving and regained the front at 26. Meanwhile, Eisenhart continued to ride a good distance ahead. Lester got his device at 30 just before Chickasaw was entered at 32. Point was called deep to the right front for Lord Magic at 38. Nothing was produced. The party regained the course at 48. At 50, the dog had a well handled find on the right. Lord Magic continued to run well. The dog took the right side of the course and was seen pointing at a good distance by Eisenhart. Some birds left early but enough remained to solidify a good find. Eisenhart got Lord Magic across the clay road at 58 and into the big fields for a finish but had difficulty getting the dog to take advantage of the opportunity.

At the conclusion of the first day, the judges had two usable performances.

The temperature at breakaway on the second morning was 49° when Touch's Malcolm Story (McLean) and Miller's Heat Advisory (Carlton) were released at 8:00 a.m. Malcolm Story won here last year. Heat Advisory was seen straight ahead. Malcolm Story was also well forward. The hourglass field was entered at 8. Daniels, scouting for Carlton, called point for Malcolm Story on the left at 9. It was a good find. The dog had not been seen for a while. McLean regained the front at 11 and rode the course after showing his dog going down the field edge. Carlton searched the far side of the next field then returned to the front where he found Heat Advisory styled up straight on course at 14. Birds were flushed and the dog showed good style and manners. Malcolm Story returned to McLean from the left in the mid chute area. Heat Advisory was seen straight ahead at 16. McLean raised his hat in the distal chute, but birds lifted before the judges arrived, so he collared the dog and went on. The water crossing was made at 23. Malcolm Story went straight ahead then made a showy swing forward on the other side of the big wet weather pond. Heat Advisory suffered an unproductive at 27. Both dogs continued to impress with their application on the ground. Both handlers got their dogs through the creek at 34 and sent them ahead. McLean got Malcolm Story back at 42. After searching on the left to no avail, Carlton asked for his device at 48 as the road was crossed onto Ecila. Malcolm Story continued to run and show. Point was called on the right near a wet area at 53. The dog was intense and when a relocation was requested, moved forward about six yards and re-established. Nothing could be flushed and an unproductive was charged at 57. Malcolm Story was seen going deep near time but was not seen at time. However, the dog was seen moving by the judges just before McLean called point. McLean flushed and shot on what would have been a good find had it been in judgment. Malcolm Story did a good job but needed a little more luck.

The second brace of the morning consisted of Lester's Another Shockwave (Lester) and Hi Rollin Macho Man (Swearingen). They began about at the first right turn. Lester showed Shockwave ahead at 7. Both handlers rode aggressively ahead. Point was called on the left side of the course at 10 for Macho Man. The setter was stylish and mannerly for the flush and shot. Swearingen regained the front at 12. Shockwave required, or at least received, aggressive scouting. Lester got his dog back at 20. Macho Man was seen in a rough at a close distance then disappeared. Swearingen got his tracker at 30. Shockwave was found pointing in some large planted pines at 33. Lester put up a big covey in front of the stylish and mannerly dog. Another Shockwave's ground application was somewhat erratic. Lester ended the brace at 45.

The final morning brace matched Dominator's Queen Bee (Daniels) with Lester's Georgia Time (McLean). The dogs were released where the course turns back toward Abigail. Georgia Time was out early but returned at 11. Both dogs were shown ahead at 13 and both handlers made the road crossing back onto Abigail with their dogs at 19. McLean got through the creek at 24 and Daniels soon followed with Queen Bee. Georgia Time went deep and was shown several times making good forward casts. McLean found the dog pointed near where he had last been seen at 31. Georgia Time had impeccable manners when McLean flushed and shot to solidify a good piece of work. Both handlers made the crossing back onto Chickasaw at 35. Georgia Time was seen ahead at 45 and several times thereafter but McLean decided to end his effort at 51. Daniels had gotten his retrieval device a little earlier.

The first brace of the second afternoon (No. 10) paired Bonner's Hot Rise (Lester) with Erin's Three Leaf Shamrock (Eisenhart). Both dogs started on the right and went around the far side of the first big pond. Both handlers generally rode the course and relied on their scouts. They entered the hourglass field at 8. Lester got Hot Rise back at 10 just before the slight turn heading toward the chute. He showed the dog well ahead at 12. Shamrock reappeared at the beginning of the chute at 14 and was seen in front at a good distance at 16. Lester had a find with Hot Rise at 18 in the distal chute where birds often leave early. This time they stayed. The water crossing onto Abigail was made by both competitors at 22. Both handlers had their dogs ahead at 26 and got them through the creek at 33 and pointed them out to the front at 36. Point was called for Shamrock about one hundred yards down on the right at 37. It proved unproductive. Eisenhart continued until 49. Lester crossed onto Ecila and continued with Hot Rise and showed the dog in deep at 52. Point was called at 54. Time expired on an unsuccessful relocation effort.

The second afternoon brace on the second day (No. 11) paired Erin's Primetime (Raynor) with Chief's Rising Sun (Carlton). Competition began about ten minutes into Ecilia. Both dogs ran aggressively early and kept the handlers well ahead to maintain contact. Carlton watered Rising Sun just across the clay road at 18 and the setter responded with a good cast. Primetime was also shown on a good swing. Rising Sun jumped a deer at 30 and disappeared with Carlton in hot pursuit. Raynor conceded at 31. Carlton returned at 32 with Rising Sun in harness.

Lester's Boss Man (Lester) and Dominator's Rogue Rebel (Daniels) made up the last brace of the second day (12). Jack and Sarah Schwarz were in the gallery to support Rogue Rebel. The dogs were turned loose heading into a big open area. Daniels rode straight and Lester searched the right side of the course. Rogue Rebel was seen more often than Boss Man in the early going. Rogue Rebel showed at 9 and then again at 13. Lester got his tracker at 19, seconds before Boss Man appeared from the right. Daniels called it quits at 26.

The winner was in No.13.

The second brace of the third morning began about 20 minutes into Ecila when Game Ice (Raynor) and Miller's Stray Bullet (Norman) were released after the turn at the first pond bottom. Both dogs ran aggressively in the early going. Raynor called point for Game Ice at 8 just after crossing the clay road. He flushed birds in front of the mannerly dog. Stray Bullet was shown on a good cast at 10. Point was called by Norman at 16 and a good find was credited to Stray Bullet. Norman regained the front at 18. Game Ice returned to Raynor from the left at 21. Both handlers had their dogs for the course turn at 26. Game Ice pointed about sixty yards in on the right at 28. Stray Bullet got out of pocket. Norman continued to ride and search until 38 when he requested the retrieval unit. Raynor returned with Game Ice in harness after being charged with an unproductive stand.

Touch's Joy Ride (McLean) and Erin's Tin Star (Daniels) made up the final morning brace (No. 15) and were turned loose on Ecila about eight minutes from Abigail. Karen Norton was mounted, Bruce was in the road gallery in support of Joy Ride. Both handlers made the crossing onto Abigail with their dogs. McLean crossed the creek at 12 and showed Joy Ride well forward at 14. Daniels searched on the right before getting his unit at the creek. Joy Ride was well in hand before crossing the water back on to Chickasaw. McLean continued with Joy Ride until 39.

Brace No. 16 began after the lunch and matched Supreme Confidence (Eisenhart) against Lester's Storm Chaser (Lester). The sky was bright blue, the temperature near 80°. Claudia McNamee was mounted in support of her young contender. Both handlers rode the course in the early going. Storm Chaser showed at 6. Eisenhart showed Confidence at 7 going down the edge of the hourglass field. The handlers passed the gap at 10 and entered the chute area at 12. Eisenhart called point for Supreme Confidence at 15, the dog standing where his last cast would have predicted. A good find was credited after a successful relocation effort. Storm Chaser had a commendable find in the distal chute at 19. Eisenhart caught the front at 20. Both handlers made the water crossing onto Abigail with their dogs at 22. Storm Chaser was seen across the wet weather pond after the turn on a good cast at 24. Both dogs were shown well ahead at 27. Handlers crossed the creek at 29 and released their dogs as the judges arrived. "Point!" was heard from the far right at 34. It turned out to be for Supreme Confidence. The young dog carded a second impressive find. Eisenhart regained the front at 39. Both handlers asked for help on the left at 42. Both dogs returned at 49. Eisenhart watered Supreme Confidence at 50 but decided to call it quits after discovering the dog had knocked his pads off. Lester also picked up at 51.

Brace No. 17 consisted of Touch's Gallatin Fire (McLean) and Dunn's True Reign (Eisenhart). Claudia McNamee rode to support her second entry of the afternoon. The brace began heading toward the first right turn on Ecila. Both handlers showed their dogs well ahead in the early going and made the first turn with them. Both dogs were pointed out at 8. McLean got Gallatin Fire back at 12. True Reign appeared on the right shortly thereafter. Both dogs made the next turn at 16. McLean had Gallatin Fire at 20 and blew him out. Eisenhart showed True Reign about the same time. The handlers entered the big open area at 25. Point was called for True Reign on the right at 28. The dog had birds and handled them in good fashion. The call of point was heard again at 36 in an area ahead before a course turn. Eisenhart answered the call while McLean continued to ride the course searching for his dog. When Eisenhart got down to flush, he discovered that it was not his dog. He flushed birds in front of Gallatin Fire and shot. The dog showed good manners. True Reign was in the area but not involved. Eisenhart returned to the forward party with both dogs at 41. After a brief discussion, they were put on the wagon.

The final brace of the third day paired Miller's Unfinished Business (Norman) with Touch's Breakaway Fred (McLean). Fred had Gary and Becky Futch plus Karen Norton mounted in support. Bruce Norton was on the Bird Buggy for the brace. Business was shown on a good swing to the front. Fred was out for a time but showed at 6 and was pointed out ahead several times. Norman got Business back at 10. Both dogs made the crossing onto Abigail at 12 and got through the creek crossing at 16. Both dogs moderated their range for a spell before crossing back onto Chickasaw at 27. Neither dog was seen for a time. McLean called point for Fred to the right front at 32. Birds were put up and the dog handled the event in good fashion. Unfinished Business was shown making a good swing on the other side of the first field at 40. McLean regained the forward party behind the barn where both dogs were put in harness at 42.

Brace No. 19 has been described.

Touch's Red Rider was scratched for health reasons leaving Dominator's Rebel Queen (Daniels) to run alone in brace No. 20. Point was called at 9 but birds flushed unseen by the judge, so no attempt was made to flush. Queen made some decent swings before being lifted at 15 without birdwork.

The final brace of the trial pitted Rebel Cause (Daniels) against Touch's Blue Moon (McLean). Karen Norton was in the mounted gallery and Bruce was on the Bird Buggy for Blue Moon. David and Angie Williams were on horseback for Rebel Cause. Competition began on Ecila about 25 minutes from the crossing back onto Abigail. Point was called for Rebel Cause at 3. An unproductive was charged after a failed relocation effort. Daniels regained the front at 6. Blue Moon was found pointed at 9 and suffered an unproductive as well. McLean was back in front at 13. After the next turn, both handlers rode aggressively to maintain contact. Daniels got his retrieval device at 19; McLean followed suit at 21.

The 2022 Southeastern Quail Championship was over.

OIL CAPITAL FIELD TRIAL ASSOCIATION

Cecil Proctor Open All-Age

Lynn Oxendine | Inola, Oklahoma | March 2, 2022

Weather can be a fickle thing this time of year in Oklahoma, and it certainly was the week of February 27 as we gathered in Inola, Okla., on the famed McFarlin-Ingersoll Ranch, for the Lee West Open Derby and the Cecil Proctor Open All-Age stakes.

Late February snow was melting as we arrived on Sunday to wet, soggy grounds and roads that hindered the bird release and dog wagon, but a welcome week of sunshine and temperatures two afternoons above 80° changed all of that. From wet and cold to hot in 72 hours. Bird work was at a premium all week in spite of the efforts of the club members and a quality group of dogs and handlers.

A big thank you to our judges who rode and watched diligently and rendered good decisions.

Bob Barker and Barry Moore teamed up to judge the Lee West Derby which drew ten. First was won by I'm Gallant, handled by Randy Anderson. Gallant had a very fast, snappy forward race coupled with a clean find midway through the brace. He was the only Derby to find birds. Anderson was in the winners' circle again with Touch's Cocaine Blues, second. Allen Vincent handled the third-place winner, Wynona High Finance.

Special thanks to Bubba Spencer and wife Amy who made the trip from Tennessee to judge the Cecil Proctor Open All-Age. They were given a difficult task of having to place all three dogs based on their ground race, as birds proved impossible to find. Their decisions were well received and we thank them again for their time and diligence. We enjoyed having them in Oklahoma.

Andy Daugherty handled Westfall's Wheels Up, owned by Bill Westfall to first. "Wheels" showed he had some as he swept the big prairie pastures and finished strong.

Consistent winner Touch's Fireaway, owned by Greg and Carmen Adams placed second. Miller's L'elletto owned by Karen Concilio placed third. Both dogs were handled by Randy Anderson.

I would like to personally say thank you to all the individuals listed below for making this trial possible. The Ingersoll family for hosting us. Greg Blair and Purina for sponsoring the trial. All the owners and handlers who supported us. Mike Griffin, for a great job with the dog wagon, along with all the members of the Oil Capital Field Trial Association who labored to make this field trial a success.
